Once upon a time there was a little girl called Rose with long yellow hair and a pink dress. She was a very naughty girl. She lived with her mother and father, they were poor.

One day, Rose went to the castle and quietly went inside where she wasn't allowed. She went into the king's room and slept in his bed. When the king went to his room he found Rose sleeping. He called her parents. The king said to take Rose to the Wise Wizard. The Wizard said to the parents to go home. He then put a spell on Rose and she fell asleep.

The wizard picked up Rose and took her deep into the forest. The wizard woke up Rose and said 'if you don't find your house in two days then you will never leave your house again'. Then he disappeared in a puff of smoke.

Rose felt sad at first, but then she realised that her house was in the same forest, she just didn't know where it was. So, she climbed the biggest tree she could find. She looked and
