Welcome to the ETD2021 Conference 15-18 November 2021

We welcome you virtually once again to the ETD2021 Conference Sponsored by the United Arab Emirates University (UAEU).

Although the COVID restrictions have eased here in the UAE, unfortunately, travel is still out of reach to many countries. It would have been wonderful if we were able to host you in person on our beautiful campus in Al Ain or at the UAEU Pavilion held at the EXPO2020 site in Dubai.

This virtual conference is free to join thanks to our sponsors:

Gold Sponsor OCLC & Edutech and Silver Sponsor ProQuest.

ETD2021 Pre- Conference Program

DAY 1	Monday 15th November,2021

Session 1
12:00pm – 1:30pm (GMT+4)

Workshop 1: Leveraging the ETD as a pathway to broader discussions about openness in a university

This workshop will explore different challenges to making ETDs openly available and how they can be used within an institution to engage with faculty in relation to open research practices. Example considerations include the use of third-party copyright, whether a data management plan is required as part of the Ph.D. research process and how the ethical approval process can be a natural point for considering and formalizing research integrity issues. Through these processes, universities have an opportunity to not only ensure the next generation of scholars are working with a high level of research integrity, but also to update the skills and knowledge of those who supervise PhD students.

Presenter : Dr Danny Kingsley (Flinders University, Australia); Amina Itani (UAEU) Moderator

Join one of the regional NDLTD sessions to informally discuss challenges and opportunities for advancing and opening up ETDs in your region and the future of open ETDs, that we want to build together as a community. Some questions that will be discussed at the session:

What has been gained?
What did we hope to achieve that has not come to pass?
What is the focus at the moment?
What issues do we face as a community? What is most pressing?
What could we do better?
What are the most important issues that need to be tackled and how?
How should NDLTD fit with the wider community effort?

THANK YOU
